

VAA
WINTER FINE ARTS SHOW
AT LAUREL MANOR
FEB. 11, 2017 9AM – 3 PM

SHOW RULES

This show is a 2D only fine arts show.

All work must be original in the following categories only : Oil, Acrylic, Watercolor, Pen and Ink, Graphite, Charcoal, Pencil or Photography.

No political, religious or nude subject matter allowed.

All artwork must be of your own creation. No copies or class produced paintings.

At least 70% of your work displayed on boards and easels MUST be originals. This will be checked.

ABSOLUTELY nothing displayed on the ends of a space facing an aisle .

The Show Committee reserves the right to determine the suitability of the artwork to be submitted.

All participating artists must be paid up/current with VAA dues.

Doors open at 7:30 AM for setup.

All packing boxes and carts must be removed from the floor or stored under covered tables.

All tables must be covered with a cloth down to the floor.

Tables and or spaces may not be changed in any way by the artist. No exceptions.

Aisles can not be blocked. Nothing can be placed in front of tables or against the walls or protrude outside of your 12x5 foot space. This will be checked.

Tables are 6 ft. long. You are allowed up to two tables. Remember that if using two tables, you are NOT allowed any space on the ends for easels or browse boxes. These two items must be on your tables or behind them – space permitting.

Spaces with one or no tables may have as many easels or browse boxes as will fit in your space neatly.

Please remember to wear your VAA name tags.

Break down is at 3 PM and not before. If you leave early, the committee will make a point of not allowing you to enter next year.

Let's have a good show with lots of sales. GOOD LUCK !!!
